

I am opposed to this petition since it lowers the standards of amateur radio. It would be better to raise all requirements for amateur applicants and operators in order to protect this valuable national asset.